THE news from China is still of a very serious nature. A dispatch purporting to have come from Minister Conger a Pekin, has been received by the authorities at Washington, stating that foreign Legations were alive last week, but the dispatch is discredited almost everywhere. The Chinese army defeated at Tien Tsin is badly disorganized and 'its power to bring about a speedy settlement, Meanwhile troops are being forwarded as rapidly as possible.

Latest from China.

A DISPATCH dated, London July 23, to the Republic says, Sir Halliday Mac-Cartney, counselor and English Secretary to the Chinese Legation in London asserted this evening that the Pekin legationers were safe and about to proceed to Tien-Tsin and that the Chinese hope to stop fighting by delivering the ministers. It is also stated that the President will act as intermediary between the other powers and China on condition that China furnish proof of safety of ministers and protection of foreigners.
